The Defendant, Jeff Legault, through counsel, requests the following discovery be answered by B.P. pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and within the time frame allowed by law or any applicable scheduling order. The interrogatories and requests for production hereinafter submitted are continuing in nature and subsequently-acquired information should be filed by way of written supplement to your answers.

The information sought in this discovery should be supplied, whether the same be within the knowledge or under the control of counsel if the information referred to within the knowledge or under the control of counsel does not relate to matters that would come within the attorney/client privilege. For any information for which you contend a privilege exists, please provide a privilege log explaining same.

(1) Please state any and all experts you intend to call as a witness at the trial of this matter.

ANSWER: Plaintiffs have not yet determined who they will call as an expert witness at a trial of this matter. Plaintiffs will supplement this response in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Rules of Court, and any applicable Scheduling Order(s).

(2) Identify all facts, including but not limited to each and every act or omission, you attribute to Legault that support your claim that he participated in and/or aided and abetted an alleged sex trafficking venture and/or obstructed an alleged sex trafficking investigation. Include the following:

- a. Date when act or omission occurred;
- b. All persons involved or related in any way to said act or omission, including any and all witnesses to said event;

- c. Any and all documents, video recordings, audio recordings or similar mediums that in any way involve or relate to said act or omission.
- d. Location of said act or omission.

ANSWER: These acts and omissions are alleged in the Second Amended Class Complaint. B.P. is not a percipient witness to these acts or admissions.

(3) Identify all facts, including but not limited to each and every act or omission you attribute to Legault that support your claim that he benefitted from any alleged sex trafficking venture. Include the following:

- a. Date when act or omission occurred;
- c. Any and all documents, video recordings, audio recordings or similar mediums that in any way involve or relate to said act or omission.
- d. Location of said act or omission.
- e. Any and all benefits received.
- f. Name(s) of any persons or entities from which a benefit was received.

ANSWER: These acts and omissions are alleged in the Second Amended Class Complaint. B.P. is not a percipient witness to these acts or admissions.

(4) Identify all facts, including but not limited to each and every act or omission, you attribute to Legault that support your claim that he obstructed enforcement of any sex trafficking law. Include the following:

- a. Date when act or omission occurred;
- c. Any and all documents, video recordings, audio recordings or similar mediums that in any way involves or relates to said act or omission.
- d. Location of said act or omission.

ANSWER: These acts and omissions are alleged in the Second Amended Class Complaint. B.P. is not a percipient witness to these acts or admissions.

(5) Identify all facts, including but not limited to, each and every act or omission, you attribute to Legault that support your claim that he aided and abetted an alleged sex trafficking venture. Include the following:

- a. Date when act or omission occurred;
- c. Any and all documents, video recordings, audio recordings or similar mediums that in any way involves or relates to said act or omission.
- d. Location of said act or omission.

ANSWER: These acts and omissions are alleged in the Second Amended Class Complaint. B.P. is not a percipient witness to these acts or admissions.

(6) Identify all facts, including but not limited to each and every act or omission you attribute to Legault that support your claim that Legault violated your civil rights. Include the following:

- a. Date when act or omission occurred;
- b. All persons involved or related in any way to said act or omission, including any and all witnesses to said event;
- c. Any and all documents, video recordings, audio recordings or similar mediums that in any way involves or relates to said act or omission.
- d. Location of said act or omission.

ANSWER: These acts and omissions are alleged in the Second Amended Class Complaint. B.P. is not a percipient witness to these acts or admissions.

(7) Please state all damages you contend you suffered as a result of the alleged wrongful acts of Legault.

ANSWER: Jenkins' conduct caused B.P. and the Sex Trafficking Survivor Class serious harm including, without limitation, physical, psychological, financial, and reputational harm, to be proved at trial.

(34) Produce each and every communication you have had with each and every “immediate family member(s) or significant other with contemporaneous information or evidence of emotional distress.”

RESPONSE: Objection: any communications between the Plaintiff and prospective class members after July 1, 2022, are covered by the common interest privilege and joint representation privilege, and any communications between Plaintiffs and third parties may be covered by the common interest privilege. Plaintiffs object to the extent spousal privilege protects any such communication. Without waiving any objection, B.P. will produce all non-privileged, responsive documents in her possession.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Heather Moore Collins
